

BIGLERVILLE BALLOTS WILL BE RECOUNTED

The official count of the ballots cast at Tuesday's election was completed Friday with one exception — Biglerville's votes will be recounted by the Biglerville election board today at 2 p.m. at the courthouse.

County Commissioners Clarence J. Waybright and Charles B. Bender, assisted by tellers Edward Stine and Luther Lady, conducted the official count Friday afternoon starting at 12 o'clock.

When they completed the tabulation of the votes for U.S. senator in Biglerville they discovered that the count of the tally showed a total of 395 votes cast for the candidates. At the same time the report of the election board, showed only 365 voters had been given ballots.

HARTMAN GAINS ONE

Rather than open up the records themselves to find the cause of the discrepancy between the numbers, the commissioners asked the Biglerville board to come in today and find the error. The members of the board are: Anita K. Dentler, judge; Harriet I. Lawver, majority inspector; Mae Shillito, minority inspector; and Alma R. Ecker and Helen S. Bosserman, clerks.

The commissioners at the same time noted that they could easily understand how errors could creep into the tabulations after 13 hours straight conducting the election and several hours more in tabulating the results.

Since the official count was not completed pending the recount of Biglerville's votes, no final results were totaled. A check was made of the vote cast for Harry D. Ridinger and Attorney Eugene R. Hartman for assemblyman. The unofficial count Tuesday showed Ridinger had 51 more votes than Hartman. The check of the results in the 43 districts for which the official count was completed showed only one change. In Latimore Twp. the unofficial count listed 206 votes for Hartman and 217 for Ridinger. In the official count for Latimore Hartman received 207 votes, while Ridinger continued to have 217. In Biglerville the unofficial tabulation showed Ridinger receiving 315 votes and Hartman 180. It will not be known until this afternoon's recount whether any change will be made in the Hartman-Ridinger vote in Biglerville.

Gift Bazaar Offers Work Of Refugees

The Fairfield Mennonite Church is going to hold an "International Christmas Gift Bazaar" next Wednesday and it will be different from other church bazaars in several important ways.

It is not being held to raise funds for the local church or any group in the church and none of the "profits" will remain here.

All of the articles for sale were made abroad by refugees, displaced persons or otherwise handicapped and deprived persons around the world in an effort to support themselves through the "self-help" program of the Mennonite Central Committee.

"SELF-HELP" PLAN

The "self-help" plan works this way: The Mennonite Central Committee provides funds with which they secure materials for the refugees to use in exercising their skills as seamstresses, carvers or craftsmen in many arts. They pay the refugees wages for the time they spend in their work. The MCC markets the products through bazaars or church groups and the money secured from the sales goes back to the "self-help" organization to buy more materials and help make more refugees self-supporting.

Besides dolls from Hong Kong and Iran, fine woodcarvings from Greece or Jordan, earrings and pin sets from Haiti or Ecuador.

X15 Rocket Plane Flips On An Emergency Landing And Leaves Pilot Dangling

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — An X15 rocket plane, spinning out of control during an emergency landing, flipped over twice on a dry lake bed and left its pilot dangling upside down by his straps.

The pilot, veteran John McKay, thought it all over and decided: "That was a damned good landing — up to a point."

McKay, who suffered only superficial injuries, will fly again. The X15 may not.

McKay's trouble actually started Friday when he was 45,000 feet up. That's where his X15 was released by its mother ship, a B52 bomber.

From there he was supposed to take his ship up to 120,000 feet and test its stability while re-entering the earth's atmosphere.

But his engine failed to develop power. So he turned it off and glided down to an emergency landing strip at Mud Lake, Nev., 195 miles north of his desert flight test center.

MAN IS SHOT IN LEFT LEG

Harold Sanders, 23, Greenstone, is in the Waynesboro Hospital with a compound fracture of both bones in his left leg, below the knee, as the result of an argument at 3 o'clock this morning. He was shot with a .45 calibre automatic revolver by Lee Willis, 28, in the latter's home in Greenstone.

Two men, both married, became involved in an argument over a third woman, who is separated from her husband. The argument became so heated that Willis drew a revolver and shot Sanders in the leg.

About an hour after the shooting state police from the local barracks were summoned. They conducted an investigation, during which Willis admitted shooting Sanders.

Sanders was removed to the Waynesboro Hospital.

Willis has not been arrested. Police say they have not determined the exact charge they will file and pending the results of further investigation Willis remains at large.

Had the bullet struck Sanders in the knee it would have blown his leg off, police say.

STOCK SURVEY SET FOR NOV. 17

Postmaster Charles W. Pentz announced today that rural mail carriers and star route contractors will begin distributing 1962 livestock survey cards to patrons on their routes about November 17. Livestock cards will be placed in the mail box of a sample of farmers served by the Gettysburg post office.

This survey is one of two which the Post Office and Agriculture Departments cooperatively conduct each year. The other one takes place in May.

The November livestock survey provides basic information to the Pennsylvania Crop Reporting Service in Harrisburg for estimating livestock numbers on farms, livestock production, the size of the pig crop this fall, calf crop, lamb crop, chickens raised and milk cow numbers on farms. Reports from a cross-section sample of farmers provide the cornerstone for reliable and accurate forecasts.

To be sure Adams County is well represented in the survey, Postmaster Pentz today urged each patron receiving a livestock card to fill it out and return it to the carrier.

Rural carriers participating include: R. 1, J. Clare Routsong; R. 2, G. Noel Flynn; R. 3, Richard H. Finkbner; R. 4, E. Glenn Raffensperger; R. 5, W. Mark Johns; R. 6, Adam J. Myers.

All rural carriers out of county post offices are also participating in the survey.

ASK VICTIM TO IDENTIFY OHIO GUNMAN

Borough police said today they plan to take Richard Marker, night clerk at the Three Crowns Motel, to Chambersburg to identify William McGovern Byrne, 20, Cleveland Heights, Ohio, who, borough police believe, robbed the motel and Marker of $100 at gunpoint early Wednesday morning.

Byrne was taken into custody by state police from the Chambersburg substation later Wednesday morning and at that time identified himself as Marker. When Chambersburg state police checked Gettysburg a little later Wednesday morning to find out something about Marker, they discovered that Marker was here and had been robbed. Later they found that the person they held was actually Byrne.

Police Chief Jack Bartlett said this morning that Byrne is claiming that he found Marker's pocketbook and it is for that reason that they plan to take Marker to Chambersburg to positively identify Byrne before bringing him here to face the armed robbery charge.

ADmits "CRIME WAVE"

In the meantime, according to police at Chambersburg, Byrne has admitted to "staging a one-man crime wave" in the Baltimore area recently.

When Chambersburg state police found Byrne near Fayetteville on the Lincoln Highway early Wednesday morning, he was slumped over the wheel of his car. Police said he was intoxicated. Marker had said the man who robbed him at gunpoint, then tied him up, "appeared to have been drinking heavily."

Police at Chambersburg said there were five bullet holes in the rear of the car in which Byrne was found. The car was identified as having been stolen from Arlington, Va. Byrne later, according to the Chambersburg authorities, said he had fired the five bullet holes through the back of the car "while he was intoxicated."

BEAT WATCHMAN

A checkbook was reportedly found in the car and it is thought that it may be one which was removed from a car rifled at the Colonial Motel Wednesday morning.

Byrne is being held at Chambersburg in default of $2,000 bail on a charge of violation of the firearms act based upon a .32 calibre pistol found in his car. Police said that, as the result of extensive questioning Thursday, Byrne admitted being responsible for a vicious assault on a watchman at the U. S. Concrete Pipe Co. in Baltimore during a robbery on November 5. The watchman was reported in fair condition at a Baltimore hospital.

Byrne also was quoted by police as admitting to the theft of four cars and to eight burglaries in the Baltimore area on November 5 and 6.

Yanks Intercept Soviet

Freighter After Chase

WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. destroyer intercepted a Soviet freighter after a top-speed dash Friday night and arranged to inspect it today.

Defense Department officials said they assumed the inspection was made at daybreak, as scheduled, although hours later they had no confirming word.

The arrangements to inspect equipment aboard the freighter Anosov outbound from Cuba were reported by the USS Barry, which made contact with the Russian vessel in the glare of searchlights Friday night.

Through the south Atlantic night the Barry shadowed the Soviet vessel, homeward bound with a military cargo that apparently includes eight missiles wrenched from their Cuban bases.

6,720 FAMILIES RECEIVE SEALS FOR CHRISTMAS

Christmas seals have been mailed to 6,720 Adams Countians by the Adams County Tuberculosis Society. Mrs. Harold L. Ecker, executive secretary, said the 1962 Christmas Seal drive opens November 13.

In an accompanying letter to seal supporters, Dr. Raymond F. Sheely, president, reported that a county-wide tuberculosis skin testing program was completed this year for First and Tenth Graders in public and parochial schools. He said the society hopes to repeat the program in 1963.

OTHER SERVICES

The society also donated 1,500 disposable syringes, over 7,000 pieces of literature and permission blanks to schools and 2,500 doses of testing solution in addition to clinical and medical assistance given to tubercular patients. A set of health books was presented to the Adams County Free Library, and financial support was given for medical research in diseases of the lung.

Adams countians are advised to make checks payable to Miss Betty Evans, treasurer, and to send donations to Mrs. Ecker, 166 Seminary Ave., Gettysburg.

Dr. Sheely reminded the community that funds obtained through the sale of Christmas seals is the only source of revenue for the society. This is the 36th annual campaign.

MAN IS SHOT IN LEFT LEG

Harold Sanders, 23, Greenstone, is in the Waynesboro Hospital with a compound fracture of both bones in his left leg, below the knee, as the result of an argument at 3 o'clock this morning. He was shot with a .45 calibre automatic revolver by Lee Willis, 28, in the latter's home in Greenstone.

Thetwo men, both married, became involved in an argument over a third woman, who is separated from her husband. The argument became so heated that Willis drew a revolver and shot Sanders in the leg.

About an hour after the shooting state police from the local barracks were summoned. They conducted an investigation, during which Willis admitted shooting Sanders.

Sanders was removed to the Waynesboro Hospital.

Willis has not been arrested. Police say they have not determined the exact charge they will file and pending the results of further investigation Willis remains at large.

Had the bullet struck Sanders in the knee it would have blown his leg off, police say.

MICROFILMING OF DEEDS TO BE DECIDED

The Adams County court Friday set December 17 at 10 a.m. as the time for a hearing on a proposal to change the method of recording wills, deeds, etc., brought to the register and recorder's office for permanent filing.

If the court gives its approval to a microfilming process it will mark the second major change since the register and recorder's office opened in 1890.

At first the clerks laboriously and often beautifully transcribed the "instruments" given them to record with pen and ink. Later (Continued On Page 2)

Yanks Intercept Soviet Freighter After Chase

WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. destroyer intercepted a Soviet freighter after a top-speed dash Friday night and arranged to inspect it today.

Defense Department officials said they assumed the inspection was made at daybreak, as scheduled, although hours later they had no confirming word.

The arrangements to inspect equipment aboard the freighter Anosov outbound from Cuba were reported by the USS Barry, which made contact with the Russian vessel in the glare of searchlights Friday night.

Through the south Atlantic night the Barry shadowed the Soviet vessel, homeward bound with a military cargo that apparently includes eight missiles wrenched from their Cuban bases.

ASK VICTIM TO IDENTIFY OHIO GUNMAN

Borough police said today they plan to take Richard Marker, night clerk at the Three Crowns Motel, to Chambersburg to identify William McGovern Byrne, 20, Cleveland Heights, Ohio, who, borough police believe, robbed the motel and Marker of $100 at gunpoint early Wednesday morning.

Byrne was taken into custody by state police from the Chambersburg substation later Wednesday morning and at that time identified himself as Marker. When Chambersburg state police checked Gettysburg a little later Wednesday morning to find out something about Marker, they discovered that Marker was here and had been robbed. Later they found that the person they held was actually Byrne.

Police Chief Jack Bartlett said this morning that Byrne is claiming that he found Marker's pocketbook and it is for that reason that they plan to take Marker to Chambersburg to positively identify Byrne before bringing him here to face the armed robbery charge.

ADmits "CRIME WAVE"

In the meantime, according to police at Chambersburg, Byrne has admitted to "staging a one-man crime wave" in the Baltimore area recently.

When Chambersburg state police found Byrne near Fayetteville on the Lincoln Highway early Wednesday morning, he was slumped over the wheel of his car. Police said he was intoxicated. Marker had said the man who robbed him at gun point, then tied him up, "appeared to have been drinking heavily."

Police at Chambersburg said there were five bullet holes in the rear of the car in which Byrne was found. The car was identified as having been stolen from Arlington, Va. Byrne later, according to the Chambersburg authorities, said he had fired the five bullet holes through the back of the car "while he was intoxicated."

BEAT WATCHMAN

A checkbook was reportedly found in the car and it is thought that it may be one which was removed from a car rifled at the Colonial Motel Wednesday morning.

Byrne is being held at Chambersburg in default of $2,000 bail on a charge of violation of the firearms act based upon a .32 calibre pistol found in his car.

Police said that, as the result of extensive questioning Thursday, Byrne admitted being responsible for a vicious assault on a watchman at the U. S. Concrete Pipe Co. in Baltimore during a robbery on November 5. The watchman was reported in fair condition at a Baltimore hospital.

Byrne also was quoted by police as admitting to the theft of four cars and to eight burglaries in the Baltimore area on November 5 and 6.

The names of 456 countians have been placed in the jury wheel by the judge, sheriff and jury commissioners of Adams County to provide names for the juries to be selected during 1963. The work was completed Friday.

After the names were typed on slips of paper, rolled and put in the wheel, the wheel was sealed and placed in a vault, with no one person able thereafter to open the wheel. With various persons holding keys, all must be used when it is time to open the wheel to draw names for the juries.

The selection is made on a population basis, with areas such as Bendersville and Berwick Twp. receiving an allotment of six names while Franklin Twp., largest of the townships, has a total of 28 names in the wheel.

6,720 FAMILIES RECEIVE SEALS FOR CHRISTMAS

Christmas seals have been mailed to 6,720 Adams Countians by the Adams County Tuberculosis Society. Mrs. Harold L. Ecker, executive secretary, said the 1962 Christmas Seal drive opens November 13.

In an accompanying letter to seal supporters, Dr. Raymond F. Sheely, president, reported that a county-wide tuberculosis skin testing program was completed this year for First and Tenth Graders in public and parochial schools. He said the society hopes to repeat the program in 1963.

OTHER SERVICES

The society also donated 1,500 disposable syringes, over 7,000 pieces of literature and permission blanks to schools and 2,500 doses of testing solution in addition to clinical and medical assistance given to tubercular patients. A set of health books was presented to the Adams County Free Library, and financial support was given for medical research in diseases of the lung.

Adams countians are advised to make checks payable to Miss Betty Evans, treasurer, and to send donations to Mrs. Ecker, 166 Seminary Ave., Gettysburg.

Dr. Sheely reminded the community that funds obtained through the sale of Christmas seals is the only source of revenue for the society. This is the 56th annual campaign.

END DEFENSE IN PITTSBURGH LIBEL TRIAL

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The defense has rested its case in the criminal libel trial of a minister accused by the Knights of Columbus of printing in a church pamphlet a false K of C. oath that vowed religious hatred.

The case of the Rev. Walter L. King, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, Independent, at Finleyville, Pa., was expected to go to an Allegheny County Court jury today. The trial opened Wednesday.

The Rev. Mr. King, editor of the "Voice of the Nazarene," testified Thursday he believed the oath he published was an authentic version of the one taken by members of the K of C., a Catholic fraternal organization.

PRINTED IN CAMPAIGN

However, when asked by defense attorney Morris M. Berger what his opinion is now, the Rev. Mr. King replied:

"Upon listening to testimony under oath I feel that it is not the (K of C.) oath."

He said the oath he printed in May, 1960, during the last presidential election campaign was obtained from "The Mission Messenger," edited by a friend, the Rev. G. L. Burtin of Summerfield, Fla.

He said he talked about the oath with other ministers "and our own folk and the general feeling among us was that it was true."

He added he holds no bigotry or prejudice against the Catholic Church.

The Rev. Mr. King also testified he left an $8,000-a-year chemist's job with Duquesne Light Co. two years ago and took a $50-a-week position as a minister and editor of the church pamphlet.

manister was asked by prosecutor George Ross.

"Did you print this with the idea that you would influence people in the election?"

The Rev. Mr. King answered, "Yes. We felt that it served as a warning and a guide to those participating in the election."

He added he holds no bigotry or prejudice against the Catholic Church.

Blocked By Engines, Spends Night In Car

MIAMI (AP) — Joseph Carden, 24, was driving home late one night recently when he found the street blocked by fire department equipment at a hotel fire.

Carden helped firemen rescue two people from the fire. Then, when he started to drive away, he found the other end of the street blocked by fire trucks which answered an alarm at an apartment house.

Carden pondered the situation, parked his car and went to sleep.

UNIONTOWN HS IS NEAR CROWN

By DAVE LEHERR

HARRISBURG (AP) — Twice-beaten Johnstown is all that stands now between Uniontown and the WPIAL-Class AA football throne.

The Trojans and Red Raiders clash Saturday night at Uniontown.

If the Red Raiders can win, they sew up their first Double A title in history.

But if Johnstown pulls an upset, the race will be thrown wide open again, with once-tyed Hempfield Area, New Castle and Monessen making claims for the championship.

Of course, they too must get by opposition this weekend, but their tasks should be easy. Monessen, the defending AA champ, takes on Donora, Hempfield meets Latrobe and New Castle tangles with Ell-

How Super Shell's 9 ingredients can give cars top performance

POWER INGREDIENT in Super Shell works for world champion driver Phil Hill (above, in Ferrari racer). Hill, first American to win the World Championship for Drivers, relies on Super Shell. One important reason: power. Today's Super Shell contains "cat-cracked" gasoline—a power ingredient made by cracking heavier petroleum molecules into lighter, livelier ones. It works to give you the power you need for top performance.

NOISE-FIGHTING INGREDIENTS in Super Shell work for a quiet engine at all speeds. Shell scientists even use a stethoscope (above) to check effect of Super Shell's anti-knock ingredients. One of these ingredients, an anti-knock mix, is so effective that a teaspoon per gallon can boost anti-knock rating five points. Alkylate, another Super Shell ingredient, is noted for controlling knock in hot engines at high speeds better than anything else yet available.

MILEAGE INGREDIENT in Super Shell is Platformate. Shell scientists test it in many cars, many places. In a recent test in San Francisco (above), exactly 250 cc. (about half a pint) of fuel without Platformate was fed into test car. Car ran until fuel was used up, then coasted to a stop (left). Distance: 6186 feet. Test was repeated, using same blend of fuel with Platformate added. Same amount of fuel. Same car. Same conditions. In this test, Super Shell with Platformate took car 6454 feet (right), gave a mileage bonus of 4.3 percent.

TCP* AND FOUR OTHER INGREDIENTS complete Super Shell's 9-ingredient blend. TCP additive can help restore power lost due to combustion deposits—can also extend spark plug life. Butane is for quick starts. Pentane mix helps engines run smoothly during "warm-up." The gum preventive ingredient is to help keep carburetors clean inside. And, when the weather calls for it, Super Shell contains an anti-icer. That's nine ingredients in Super Shell—scientifically blended to give you car top performance.

*Trademark for Shell's unique gasoline additive. Gasoline containing TCP is covered by U.S. Patent 2889212.

SEEK BOGUS CHECK PASSER

Borough police today were looking for a 105-pound young brunette who last Saturday cashed six checks, totaling $150.60 in Gettysburg and all six "bounced."

The woman who passed the checks was described as in her middle 20s, five foot two, weighing about 105 pounds, with dark hair and eyes, slender with pointed features. One of those who cashed the checks said she wore glasses, the others could not recall glasses.

In each instance she gave her name as "Joyce Stewart."

Apparently she purchased nothing in any of the stores. She told the clerks that she was working for "James Mitchell" and some of the checks were made out to "Joyce Stewart" and signed "James Mitchell." Five were for $23.40 and one was for $33.60.

One clerk asked her to sign her name and address and she wrote "Joyce Stewart, 407 Carlisle St., Gettysburg" according to the officers.

Police said a "Joyce Stewart" went to one of the local banks last Friday evening and deposited $10 in a checking account.

They added that the only James Mitchell of which they know is a local man who is in the Merchant Marine.

Town Lot Being Used For Rubbish

Borough police today warned that the borough lot on E. Middle St. east of the VFW property is not a place to put rubbish.

For some time the borough has been placing fill there in an attempt to raise the level of the lot for use by the recreation board as a "tot lot" next summer. In addition some persons have been given permission to dump ground and rocks into the lot.

As a result, police said, "some people apparently have gotten the erroneous notion that we have established a dump there and are dumping all kinds of materials."

Further dumping without permission will be prosecuted, police said. Permission will be given when the material to be dumped consists of fill for the lot.

File Murder Charge In Slaying Case

A murder charge against Raymond Martinez, 27, of New York City, accused of the slaying of Martin Sieres, 23, of Central Canobana, Puerto Rico, was filed by state police Friday before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder.

Martinez, who has not been apprehended, fatally wounded Sieres with a .38 caliber revolver Nov. 3 in a labor camp near Bendersville.

MICROFILMING

The typewriter became officially approved as a means of transcribing the records.

The new plan proposed in a joint petition to the court by the Adams County commissioners and the register and recorder calls for use of a microfilming process by which a picture would be taken of the records and then the film would be used to produce a print 8 1/2 by 15 1/4 inches which would be filed somewhat similar to the filing of the present typewritten pages. It would automatically double space available in the vaults for future records. The present size of the typed pages is 11 1/2 by 18 but by the time it is bound the book is 12 1/2 by almost 19 inches.

According to the joint petition the 8 1/2 by 15 1/4-inch reproductions of the deeds, wills, etc. will be placed in aluminum open end binders which will be stored in accordance with present practices.

The petition signed by Commissioner Clarence J. Vaybright and Charles B. Bender and Register and Recorder Carl S. Menchey claims the change will result in "a substantial saving of space . . . Changes of error in reproduction will be eliminated . . . the time required for recording will be lessened . . . and an exact reproduction of the original document will be available for inspection."

According to the petition, the papers brought to the register and recorder's office, if the court gives its approval, will be photographed by a microfilm camera provided by the commissioners, then sent for developing to a firm engaged in that business. Hall and McChesney of Syracuse, N. Y., is listed as the firm which will receive the contract. The petition states that the films will be sent to the firm for developing and processing periodically "as volume and orderly management requires."

The papers will then be reproduced by the "xerography process, a form of electrostatic reproduction."

GORDON TALKS ON VETS' DAY

"On Sunday all of you students should honor your own parents because many of them fought in World War II, the Korean War and are now fighting in the cold war."

This statement was made by Arthur M. Gordon, the main speaker in the Veterans Day assembly held at Biglerville High School on Thursday. Mr. Gordon is a social studies teacher at the high school.

Comparing fascism and communism with democracy, Mr. Gordon described how a family would spend its leisure hours if it lived in countries with each of these types of governments. He explained that people in a democracy have many more freedoms.

The program opened with devotions led by Keith Lawver. After the devotions, Richard Funt, master of ceremonies, introduced Miss Carol Houck, a Junior, who spoke on the meaning of Veterans Day. Miss Anne Bucher, also a Junior, recited a poem by an anonymous author entitled "A Soldier—His Prayer."

After Mr. Gordon's speech, the assembly was turned over to Charles Yost, who led the student body in the singing of patriotic songs.

131 BALLOTS

a new ballot. As a result their ballots were not counted.

Forty-five had their ballots rejected because they forgot the rule that "you can use an X or a check mark, but whichever one you use you have to use it throughout." They put X's down for some and check marks for others and out went the ballots. The state's reason for not permitting use of both checks and X marks on the same ballot is based upon the fact that it is so easy to make an X out of a check mark if someone wants to change someone else's ballot.

Only one person lost his vote by using the wrong colored ink. Nineteen lost their votes because they voted for all candidates. Two marked their ballots with marks other than the X's in the voting spaces and thus voided their votes.

The Commission has been working faithfully to create ceremonies next year that will be purposeful and meaningful and free of commercialization. In short, it is the Commission's objective in these observances to add to the prestige of Gettysburg as an historic shrine of the greatest significance.

"The dinner will be a community testimonial in the true sense of the word. Attendance is limited to 210 and all organizations are invited to be represented. Those accepting will be listed on the program of the event. We want to show the Commission that Gettysburg is enthusiastic in its support of the centennial observances, and, likewise, is appreciative of the efforts being put forth by the State Commission. In addition, the occasion affords the opportunity to be on hand for the formal announcement of the program."

Many of the refugees who are being helped wherever the Mennonite Central Committee works, sometimes in cooperation with other denominations, are widows. Some of them are blind. The "self-help" plan to aid refugees and others desperately needy in many parts of the world started in 1936 and has grown tremendously.

TAKE ORDERS, TOO

Besides selling articles at the Fairfield church next Wednesday from 2 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 o'clock, orders will be taken for 1963 deliveries. Tea will be served by ladies of the church.

Articles that are unsold Wednesday will be turned over to the International bazaar to be held by the YWCA at the Hotel Gettysburg pressroom. But the prices will be higher there because the "Y" hopes to raise funds thereby.

TO BE ANNUAL AFFAIR

This is the first "International Christmas Gift Bazaar" ever held by the Fairfield Mennonite Church but present plans are to make it an annual affair.

Key members in arranging for the bazaar are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shutt of Arendtsville. Mrs. Shutt is the former Joyce Musselman of Orrtanna. She and her husband spent two years in Europe with the Mennonite Central Committee.

The Ladies' Service Guild of the church is handling preparations for the project. Individual members of the church have been assisting the "self-help" project for a number of years but this year they offer the same opportunity to the community.

Acquit Minister In Bogus Oath Case

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A jury has acquitted a minister accused of publishing a false Knights of Columbus oath.

The Rev. Walker L. King of the Church of the Nazarene, Independent, at Finleyville, Pa., was cleared of criminal libel charges by an Allegheny County Court jury Friday, but he was directed to pay the court costs.

As the editor of a church pamphlet, "Voice of the Nazarene," he was accused of printing a bogus K. of C. oath vowing religious hatred.

The Rev. Mr. King testified he believed the oath to be a correct version when it was printed, but he said that after hearing testimony "I feel that it is not the oath."

or the Philippines, there is hand-some linen work from other parts of the world and beaded slippers from Jericho where a camp of 75,000 displaced persons is getting help this way.

Many of the refugees who are being helped wherever the Mennonite Central Committee works, sometimes in cooperation with other denominations, are widows. Some of them are blind. The "self-help" plan to aid refugees and others desperately needy in many parts of the world started in 1936 and has grown tremendously.

TAKE ORDERS, TOO

Besides selling articles at the Fairfield church next Wednesday from 2 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 o'clock, orders will be taken for 1963 deliveries. Tea will be served by ladies of the church.

Articles that are unsold Wednesday will be turned over to the International bazaar to be held by the YWCA at the Hotel Gettysburg pressroom. But the prices will be higher there because the "Y" hopes to raise funds thereby.

TO BE ANNUAL AFFAIR

This is the first "International Christmas Gift Bazaar" ever held by the Fairfield Mennonite Church but present plans are to make it an annual affair.

Key members in arranging for the bazaar are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shutt of Arendtsville. Mrs. Shutt is the former Joyce Musselman of Orantana. She and her husband spent two years in Europe with the Mennonite Central Committee. The Ladies' Service Guild of the church is handling preparations for the project. Individual members of the church have been assisting the "self-help" project for a number of years but this year they offer the same opportunity to the community.

Acquit Minister In Bogus Oath Case

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A jury has acquitted a minister accused of publishing a false Knights of Columbus oath.

The Rev. Walker L. King of the Church of the Nazarene, Independent, at Finleyville, Pa., was cleared of criminal libel charges by an Allegheny County Court jury Friday, but he was directed to pay the court costs.

As the editor of a church pamphlet, "Voice of the Nazarene," he was accused of printing a bogus K. of C. oath vowing religious hatred.

The Rev. Mr. King testified he believed the oath to be a correct version when it was printed, but he said that after hearing testimony "I feel that it is not the oath."

The Knights of Columbus is a Roman Catholic fraternal group.

SEEK BOGUS CHECK PASSER

Borough police today were looking for a 105-pound young brunette who last Saturday cashed six checks, totaling $150.00 in Gettysburg and all six "bounced."

The woman who passed the checks was described as in her middle 20s, five foot two, weighing about 105 pounds, with dark hair and eyes, slender with pointed features. One of those who cashed the checks said she wore glasses, the others could not recall glasses.

In each instance she gave her name as "Joyce Stewart."

Apparently she purchased nothing in any of the stores. She told the clerks that she was working for "James Mitchell" and some of the checks were made out to "Joyce Stewart" and signed "James Mitchell." Five were for $23.40 and one was for $33.60.

One clerk asked her to sign her name and address and she wrote "Joyce Stewart, 407 Carlisle St., Gettysburg" according to the officers.

Police said a "Joyce Stewart" went to one of the local banks last Friday evening and deposited $10 in a checking account.

They added that the only James Mitchell of which they know is a local man who is in the Merchant Marine.

Town Lot Being Used For Rubbish

Borough police today warned that the borough lot on E. Middle St. east of the VFW property is not a place to put rubbish.

For some time the borough has been placing fill there in an attempt to raise the level of the lot for use by the recreation board as a "tot lot" next summer. In addition some persons have been given permission to dump ground and rocks into the lot.

As a result, police said, "some people apparently have gotten the erroneous notion that we have established a dump there and are dumping all kinds of materials."

Further dumping without permission will be prosecuted, police said. Permission will be given when the material to be dumped consists of fill for the lot.

File Murder Charge In Slaying Case

A murder charge against Raymond Martinez, 27, of New York City, accused of the slaying of Martin Siales, 23, of Central Canabana, Puerto Rico, was filed by state police Friday before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder.

Martinez, who has not been apprehended, fatally wounded Siales with a .38 caliber revolver Nov. 3 in a labor camp near Bendersville.

the typewriter became officially approved as a means of transcribing the records.

The new plan proposed in a joint petition to the court by the Adams County commissioners and the register and recorder calls for use of a microfilming process by which a picture would be taken of the records and then the film would be used to produce a print 8 1/2 by 15 1/2 inches which would be filed somewhat similar to the filing of the present typewritten pages. It would almost automatically double space available in the vaults for future records. The present size of the typed pages is 11 1/2 by 16 but by the time it is bound the book is 12 1/2 by almost 19 inches.

According to the joint petition the 8 1/2 by 15 1/2-inch reproductions of the deeds, wills, etc. will be placed in aluminum open end binders which will be stored in accordance with present practices.

The petition signed by Commissioner Clarence J. Vaybright and Charles B. Bender and Register and Recorder Carl S. Menchey claims the change will result in "a substantial saving of space . . . Changes of error in reproduction will be eliminated . . . the time required for recording will be lessened . . . and an exact reproduction of the original document will be available for inspection."

According to the petition, the papers brought to the register and recorder's office, if the court gives its approval, will be photographed by a microfilm camera provided by the commissioners, then sent for developing to a firm engaged in that business. Hall and McChesney of Syracuse, N. Y., is listed as the firm which will receive the contract. The petition states that the films will be sent to the firm for developing and processing periodically "as volume and orderly management requires."

The papers will then be reproduced by the "xerography process, a form of electrostatic reproduction."

GORDON TALKS ON VETS' DAY

"On Sunday all of you students should honor your own parents because many of them fought in World War II, the Korean War and are now fighting in the cold war."

This statement was made by Arthur M. Gordon, the main speaker in the Veterans Day assembly held at Biglerville High School on Thursday. Mr. Gordon is a social studies teacher at the high school.

Comparing fascism and communism with democracy, Mr. Gordon described how a family would spend its leisure hours if it lived in countries with each of these types of governments. He explained that people in a democracy have many more freedoms.

The program opened with devotions led by Keith Lawver. After the devotions, Richard Funt, master of ceremonies, introduced Miss Carol Houck, a Junior, who spoke on the meaning of Veterans Day. Miss Anne Butcher, also a Junior, recited a poem by an anonymous author entitled "A Soldier—His Prayer."

APPLE BUTTER NEW AT MART

New apple butter made its first appearance on the Farmers' Market this morning and found a ready demand at 50 cents a jar. Cider also sold well at 60 cents a gallon. There were dried apples, too, for the first time this fall at 35 cents a quart box.

Apples were in good supply, a dozen varieties of them, selling at $1.25 per half bushel. Quinces, pears and crabapples also were on sale at unchanged prices.

Dressed chickens were 50 cents per pound and eggs were up to 55 to 60 cents per dozen.

What may have been the last fresh tomatoes of the season were offered at 30 cents a quart box. Home grown English walnuts brought 25 cents a box. Turnips were 20 cents a quart box and pumpkins ranged from five to 30 cents each. Home-canned peaches were 50 cents a quart jar. Homemade cakes were $1.25.

Fresh pork was in brisk demand at prices that have not changed since it first appeared on market two weeks ago. In addition to backbones, ribs and roasts, scrapple and sausage sold well.

Cut chrysanthemums brought 25 cents a bouquet.

a new ballot. As a result their ballots were not counted.

Forty-five had their ballots rejected because they forgot the rule that "you can use an X or a check mark, but whichever one you use you have to use it throughout." They put X's down for some and check marks for others and out went the ballots. The state's reason for not permitting use of both checks and X marks on the same ballot is based upon the fact that it is so easy to make an X out of a check mark if someone wants to change someone else's ballot.

Only one person lost his vote by using the wrong colored ink. Nineteen lost their votes because they voted for all candidates. Two marked their ballots with marks other than the X's in the voting spaces and thus voided their votes.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the

The Gettysburg Times

TEN YEARS AGO
Jacobs Chosen As Director:
Luther E. Jacobs, R. 3, has been named as a director of the newly-organized Pennsylvania Foods Merchants Assoc. Mr. Jacobs, as a charter member of the group, is scheduled to attend charter-presentation ceremonies at Erie. Fifteen grocers from throughout the state make up the board of directors of the group which is scheduled to "represent the Keystone State's retail food industry, its trade and governmental circles."

Golden Anniversary Edition:
The Gettysburg Times today presents its Golden Anniversary Edition, one hundred and six page issue commemorating fifty years of daily newspaper publishing in Gettysburg and Adams County. It is the largest newspaper ever published in this area. Each issue weighs one pound, ten and one-half ounces and the newsprint stock for each issue cost more than twelve cents. The entire edition is more than 11,000 nine and one-half tons of paper. In September, 1905, The Gettysburg Times came into being, a changeover from the original "The Progress." From a struggling four-page paper The Times moved forward, always mindful of its objective, an unbiased, impartial and community newspaper. It has survived two serious depressions and two World Wars. From a meagre force of three and then five employees it has grown into a formidable publication employing 66 full-time workers plus some thirty odd carriers and fifteen county correspondents. The only president of the Times and News Publishing Company, publisher of The Gettysburg Times, has ever had is Samuel G. Spangler, York St. And although Mr. Spangler is living retired (although not from the presidency, where he is extremely active) he joined a large volunteer force today to distribute this anniversary edition. The founder of the Oyley and Spangler Company, later an affiliate of the Central Chemical Co., recently retired from business life after more than half a century of hard work. In good health and exceptionally active for one of his advanced years, Mr. Spangler offered his services to his own company as a "carrier boy" today. He declined remuneration. Mr. Spangler, an outstanding business man, was one of a group who decided to purchase the paper in 1923 when W. Lavere Hafer, its outstanding editor and owner, decided to sell the publication because of ill health. More than half a century ago Mr. Spangler was the operator of a store on Lincoln Square. He then went into partnership with the late J. Price Oyley, also an original Times and News Publishing member, in the rendering business, which grew into Central Chemical Co.

Favor Ike At Mt. St. Mary's:
A straw vote on the campus at Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, indicates that the students agreed that "It's Time for a Change." General Eisenhower won the presidential poll with 200 votes to Governor Stevenson's 178. The student body was divided over the question of whether Eisenhower should support McCarthy, but there was a solid protest against the Truman "Whistle Stop" tactics.

Delone Parents Form PTA:
Parents of Delone High School students met at the school in McSherrytown and formed a Parent-Teacher Assoc. Joseph Kangel, St. Vincent's Parish, Hanover, has been nominated for president; Edward DeChubell, St. Mary's, McSherrytown, for vice pres.; Dennis Umdil, Sr., St. Joseph's, Hanover, secretary, and Mrs. Robert Derck, St. Francis Xavier, Gettysburg, financial secretary. Officers will be elected at a later meeting.

Today's Talk

WITHIN THE SHADOWS
We have to live many years before we come to appreciate some of the simplest truths and beauties that are ever within and about us.

Only of late years have shadows been revealed to me in all their glory. We are apt to take them for granted, whereas shadows really make the beauty of a thing dominant and striking. Take a painting or an etching, a statue in bronze or marble — the shadows give to it its life and vibrancy.

The loveliest part of any day is when the shadows have gathered thick — toward evening, mingling with the dusk of night-fall. Even the shadows that form about the planes of our face, tend to emphasize and make prominent our very features. And the folds of one's garment, how beautiful they are as they somehow take upon themselves a touch of the personality of the one who wears them! Without the shadows, these folds would be meaningless.

How beautiful are the shadows that cluster and hover about a winding road banked upon either side by glorious trees clad in colorful autumn garb. I also have within my memory-room a spring scene where the trees were white birches and they threw a mass of shadows about the road that gave to it the appearance of a lovely tapestry.

I shall never forget a wonderful plane trip I made one winter to Havana and back from Miami, Florida. Going over there were many clouds but the day was beautiful and full of sunshine, and the shadows cast by the clouds upon the landscape below were a revelation to me. Like rare rugs scattered here and there about the land and water. It is so fascinating to watch shadows at play. In the out-of-doors they change every second. Even our thoughts and our words may have their shadows — their shades of beauty. Even our dreams and the voyage of this little life-bark of ours, depend upon shadows to give nourishment and hope.

FOURTH AT BRIDGE
The fourth at bridge I used to be — A kind, but foolish soul — But life has grief enough for me. So now I scorn the role, Once to oblige I filled the chair, The table to complete, Now, rather than be blistered there I leave a vacant seat.

When questioned: "Will I take a hand?" smiling say, "not I, The game I do not understand." Nor do I think I lie. No wish have I to be despised Or rated as a fool And be condemned and criticized For breaking code and rule.

All fourths at bridge by those who play — are treated as their foes, Your expert has a scornful way Of looking down his nose. And players who have read the books They publish on the game Wreck friendships old with words and looks And that's downright shameful

Nixon Blames Truman: Sen. Richard M. Nixon, Republican vice presidential candidate, speaking on the steps of the Pennsylvania state capitol to a crowd estimated at 26,000, said America's casualty list in Korea is a direct result of "a spineless foreign policy." The crowd cheered Nixon's attack but a hush fell when he said: "I would like to see the dead boys in Korea somehow vote an absentee ballot. You would see them all vote against this administration." Nixon, landing his presidential running-mate, Dwight D. Eisenhower, asked for the general's election so that "we can have the best leadership America can produce" in dealing with the Soviet Union. "Don't settle for second-raters," he said. "Don't settle for Stevenson."

SAY MENON WILL REMAIN AS ADVISOR

By RANGASWAMY SATAKOPAN
NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Top Indian political and official circles believe that V. K. Krishna Menon will continue to be Prime Minister Nehru's chief adviser on foreign policy despite his fall from the cabinet and the debacle of his defense policy.

And there is no indication, these same sources say, that Menon won't continue to be Nehru's favorite spokesman at the United Nations when the prime minister feels Menon's special talents are needed there.

Nehru's reluctance in dropping Menon from his Cabinet was plain. "I have decided with great regret to accept Menon's resignation," he told leaders of the Congress party. Nehru said he was accepting the resignation because the unending and mounting controversy around his closest associate would inevitably impede the defense effort.

But Menon continues to live across the street from Nehru's official residence, within easy reach of the prime minister whenever Nehru wants to consult him. And after years of paying close heed to Menon's counsel, it is highly unlikely that Nehru is now going to ignore it.

Menon no longer will exercise direct and constant influence on day-to-day policies, as he has for the past six years as a senior cabinet member, one of Nehru's aides said.

MAY SHORTEN DAILY PRAYERS

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Suggestions were made at the Roman Catholic Ecumenical Council Friday that the daily prayers priests must say be shortened to give them more time for their pastoral duties. Opposition to any change also was expressed.

The breviary—the book of daily prayers said by every priest—was the main topic of discussion at the council session in St. Peter's, a spokesman said.

"Several speakers requested that it be reduced in size so that priests might dedicate themselves more to the work of the apostolate," the spokesman said. "Others requested that it be adapted more to the demands of the times." Priests now spend about two hours every day reading from the breviary. Nineteen prelates spoke Friday—cardinals and archbishops. The spokesman said that some of the prelates suggested that the breviary not be changed because it has undergone reform through the centuries. The speakers, the spokesman said, pointed to revisions made by Pope John XXIII in 1960 and asserted that these made recitations easier.

PUBLISHER, 82, IS HONORED

WATERVILLE, Maine (AP)—Pulitzer Prize-winner Thomas M. Stork says a newspaper "must have a conscience and speak from that conscience in a strong and reasoned voice."

"In short," he adds, "it must was President Truman's candidate for the presidency. "I don't think we want to replace a piano-playing letter-writer with a joke maker in the White House."

The fellowship commemorates a Colby graduate's martyrdom to freedom of the press. "Elijah Lovejoy lighted the way 125 years ago when he chose personal danger and death to surrender of his principles," Storke said in an address read at Colby by his executive editor, Paul Vieben.

Storke's doctor wouldn't let him make the long cross-country trip in November weather. Lovejoy was slain in 1837 defending his newspaper press from an Alton, Ill., mob angered by his anti-slavery editorials.

NEHRU SCORNS RED OFFER OF PEACE TRADE

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW
NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru told Parliament Friday India will pay no heed to so-called peace offensives from Peiping. Saying they are aimed at humiliating and weakening India's determination, he exhorted the nation to be prepared for a long war.

Red China announced Wednesday it had offered to pull back its troops on the disputed northeastern frontier if the Indians would hand over territory claimed by the Chinese in Ladakh, in the north west.

Communist forces opened military offensives on both Himalayan fronts Oct. 20. In Ladakh, they hold all but about 500 square miles of a 15,000-square-mile area they claim.

Red Chinese attacks were reported today at Walong in the northeastern frontier near the Burma border. The Indians claimed they were repulsed. About 300 miles west of Walong, the Red Chinese still control the monastery town of Towang.

Indian forces are beginning to receive big supplies of U.S. and British infantry weapons to counter heavy Red Chinese firepower. A U.S. Army general is expected to come to New Delhi to discuss additional arms shipments.

LUCILLE BALL WILL BECOME DESILU PREXY

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Lucille Ball is taking over as president of Desilu Productions and will acquire control of the multi-million-dollar enterprise by buying out her ex-husband, Desi Arnaz.

Arnaz, 45, resigned the presidency Thursday and the board of directors immediately named Miss Ball to succeed him.

Thus the couple ended their business association about two years after ending their marriage. Arnaz was not available for comment on his resignation, but a Desilu spokesman said he wants to devote full time to other interests.

REPORT $20 MILLION

Miss Ball, 51, said she would purchase 300,350 shares of stock held by Arnaz and increase her holdings to 600,650, or 52 per cent of all outstanding shares.

A studio spokesman said Miss Ball will pay Arnaz "a price considerably in excess of the current market value." Desilu stock has gone as high as $12 a share this year.

There were reports recently that a large electrical firm sought to buy Desilu and the asking price then was estimated at $20 million.

Mikoyan Misses Wife's Burial; Sons Believed Still In Exile

MOSCOW (AP)—A funeral orator said Friday the sons of First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan were ordered arrested by Stalin in World War II and shipped into exile.

The orator, Ivan Shaumyan, also intimated that Mikoyan—now negotiating in Cuba with Fidel Castro—had difficulties with Stalin during the same period. Shaumyan was speaking at the burial service for Mikoyan's wife, Ashkhen. She died Sunday.

AWAITED HUSBAND'S RETURN

"Nobody knows how many sleepless nights she spent," Shaumyan said, "not knowing whether her husband would come home."

Surprisingly, the two most prominent personalities to pay tribute to Mrs. Mikoyan were men who have been politically disgraced—former President Klementi Y. Voroshilov and Nikolai Ignatov, dropped from the Central Committee last year.

Ignatov appeared in the government building near Red Square where her body lay for a few hours today. And Voroshilov was the only well-known personality to attend the burial in the graveyard of Moscow's Novodevichy monastery.

SECOND-RATE CEMETERY
Also buried in the same graveyard are wives of Stalin and Voroshilov. The graveyard is no longer considered a religious place, but a final resting place for Soviet personalities not high enough to rate burial in the Kremlin wall.

Moscow's diplomatic corps, including U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler, filed past the plain wooden coffin as it lay in the building near Red Square. Kohler laid a wreath at the bier.

No top Kremlin personalities appeared there, or at the graveyard, not even Mrs. Khrushchev.

SPECULATION MOUNTS
Some political observers immediately began speculating whether this could mean Mikoyan's political fortunes might be waning.

Although Mrs. Mikoyan was a party worker, having joined before the Revolution, the highest-ranking party official to speak at the burial service was a man named Razov, identified as secretary of the Kremlin party organization.

Shaumyan is much better known. He is the son of the famous Armenian revolutionary, Stepan Shaumyan, executed in 1918 in the Caucasus under British orders.

Lombardi, Bullets Close Dazzling Cross Country Season With Ninth Win

One of the most sensational seasons in history both for ace runner Jim Lombardi and the Gettysburg College cross country team came to a close Friday afternoon as the Bullets shutout their second opponent of the year by blanking Washington College 15-43 on the losers' course.

For Coach Hal Glad's harriers it was the best record turned in by a cross country team as the squad sailed through the season with a 9-1 record. The lone loss came at the hands of Temple by a slim 27-38 margin. The record is also the finest turned in by a Gettysburg team in over a decade.

For Jim Lombardi it was the closing of a tremendous performance. The Montclair, N.J., Junior, who finished second last year, came through this campaign and won every race with the exception of one and that came about due to a wrong turn on the course.

SETS 6TH RECORD

Lombardi closed out his Junior year in a blaze of glory as he set his sixth record of the year Friday. He smashed the Washington College course record by six seconds. He toured the four-mile layout in 21:57 in a steady downpour which would have normally slowed his pace.

Jerry Staub, Pete Herslow, Dave Bloomer and Bob Loomis finished right behind Lombardi in that order for the shutout. Ed Salmon was unable to make the trip. Andy Neilsson paced the losers by taking sixth place in 24:41.

The results: Jim Lombardi, G., 21:57; Jerry Staub, G., 22:40; Pete Herslow, G., 23:33; Dave Bloomer, G., 23:37; Bob Loomis, G., 24:23; Andy Neilsson, W., 24:41; Bruce O'Kane, W., 24:43; Hurley Cox, W., 26:24; Ben Troutman, W., 29:09; Neil Jobson, W., 26:17.

Jailed 5 Years For Defrauding 2 Banks

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—A five-year jail term has been ordered for Morris Hollow, former head of Scranton Battery Corp. on his pleas of guilty to defrauding two banks of $177,790. Hollow, of Clifton Township, was charged in U.S. District Court, with forging certain trade acceptances at the first National Bank of Carbondale where he was secretary of the board of directors and with defrauding the Third National Bank and Trust Co. of Scranton on certain accounts through which he had borrowed money. Sentence was pronounced Friday.

TITAN ELEVEN WILL BE SOLD

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Titans of the American Football League, on the rocks financially and unable to meet the payroll, will be sold in the near future, probably within a week.

Milt Woodard, assistant commissioner of the AFL, said Friday the league has loaned the club enough money to meet the player payroll through Sunday's game with the Dallas Texans.

Asked if the league would continue this policy indefinitely, Woodard replied:

"No. We trust the affair will be completely settled by another week."

Harry Wismer, Titan owner, has offered the club for sale. He is asking $2.5 million. Wismer, a former radio sportscaster, is reported to have lost $1.7 million attempting to compete with the New York Giants of the National Football League since the AFL was founded three years ago.

Woodard said at least three parties, all New Yorkers, have expressed interest in buying the franchise.

FAMILY AND DOCTOR TRIED FOR SLAYING

By FRED CHEVAL

LIEGE, Belgium (AP) — The prosecution demanded convictions today for a family and a doctor on trial in the slaying of a thalidomide baby born without arms.

The case was expected to go to the jury later in the day. Prosecutor Leon Cappuyens said in a final statement that he has been described "as the most lonely man in this trial," but he pressed the jury to act according to their conscience and not to public opinion.

In an earlier address to the jury, the prosecutor asked that a recommendation of leniency accompany a guilty verdict.

The defense, in its summation Friday, called for acquittal of Mrs. Suzanne Vandepuit, 24, accused of poisoning her daughter eight days after she was born armless, and of four others charged with being accomplices.

PUBLIC SYMPATHY

Letters and telegrams flooding the palace of justice have sided mostly with the defense. Persons calling newspapers and radio stations in Liege also demand acquittal.

The 12-man jury, all but one a parent, must decide by a simple majority.

On trial with Mrs. Vandepuit are her husband, Jean, 35; her sister, Mrs. Monique de la Marck, 26; the victim's grandmother, Mrs. Fernande Yerna, 50, and the family's physician, Dr. Jacques Casters, 33.

Mrs. Vandepuit, who took thalidomide during pregnancy, has admitted giving her infant daughter a barbiturate prescribed by Dr. Casters at the family's request. The baby was born last May 29.

The balance of the settlement will go to Jack H. Barton, counsel for the Cramer family.

FINED $2,000 IN FIRM CRASH

RIDGWAY, Pa. (AP)—A $2,000 fine and suspended jail sentence were handed out Friday to a former vice president of four St. Marys finance companies which collapsed under an alleged $3.7 million investment loss.

Edward J. P. Jacob, 83, accused of having knowledge of illegal activities of the firms before retiring in Oct., 1961, was sentenced in Elk County Court by Visiting Judge J. Paul Campbell of Centre County.

The judge said Jacob would not have to serve a one-to-two-year jail term if he pays the fine and observes the terms of his parole.

Two other former officials of the four firms received sentences and fines in connection with the shortage.

George Rupprecht, former president, and Carl Gerg, secretary, were sentenced to prison terms of one to two years and fined $5,000 apiece in August.

The companies were the Industrial Finance Co. and its subsidiaries, St. Marys Finance Co., Elk County Consumers Co., and Industrial Discount Co.

PENDER LOSES MOST OF TITLE TO DICK TIGER

NEW YORK (AP)—Paul Pender today retained middleweight champion title of Massachusetts — and he may even lose his home state soon — but his attorney, breathing fire, threatened legal action.

In one long swoop, Pender was stripped Friday of the title by the New York State Athletic Commission, along with the European, British, Oriental and California commissions. All recognized Dick Tiger of Nigeria, already the champion of the World Boxing Association, the old National Boxing Association of the United States.

Pender first won a share of the title on Jan. 22, 1960 when he beat Sugar Ray Robinson in Boston. He lost it to Terry Downes in London on July 11, 1961, and won it back in Boston on April 7 of this year when he whipped Downes in a return bout.

Champions are supposed to defend their titles within six months. Since more than seven months has gone by, the ring bodies decided to act.

"I will take legal action if necessary," thundered John Cronin, Pender's attorney. "If Paul is deprived of his title, he also will be deprived of making a proper livelihood."

Melvin Kruehweh, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, formally dethroned Pender. He said that he had consulted with all the other commissions in question and that the decision was unanimous.

Further, Massachusetts State Boxing Commission Chairman, Herman Greenberg, said it was "ridiculous to call Pender a champion if he is recognized in Massachusetts alone."

Pender had agreed to defend his title against Jose Torres, an unranked Puerto Rican. The New York commission refused to recognize it as a title bout. Finally, it was called off because Torres could not come up with the required $100,000 guarantee.

COUNCIL ENDS FIRST MONTH

By BENNET M. BOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Roman Catholic Ecumenical Council completed its first month today barely into its task of bringing the church up to date in the modern world.

The prospect now is for many more months, running perhaps into years, before the 2,200 council fathers have had their final debate and cast their last vote.

Pope John XXIII opened this biggest council in 20 centuries at a St. Peter's Basilica ceremony Oct. 11. The council fathers began with an independent approach to their labors — and immediately set an unbridled pace — as they chose carefully across wide international lines for memberships on 10 commissions.

TWELVE SESSIONS

Since then they have met in 12 working sessions of three hours each without completing discussion on the first topic before them.

The cardinals, patriarchs, archbishops, bishops, abbots and heads of religious orders go into recess Dec. 8.

Informed estimates are that they will barely have finished discussion of the first topic — liturgy, or public worship — by then. Their next topic is on divine revelation and its sources.

GIANTS FACE TOUGH DALLAS TEAM SUNDAY

By JACK CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer — The Green Bay Packers, and New York Giants are winging their way toward a second successive meeting for the National Football League title, but the Giants may run into the heaviest flak concentration of the season Sunday in Dallas' Cotton Bowl.

While the defending champion Packers are given little to worry about in their visit with the Philadelphia Eagles, New York must gather its off-punctured defenses and battle the league's top offensive team.

A victory by the Giants and one by the Washington Redskins, who play host to Cleveland, would put New York in a highly favorable position to get its fifth Eastern Conference title in the past seven years. Washington is second in the East, a half game behind the Giants, while Dallas and Cleveland are tied for third, 1½ games back.

OTHER GAMES

In other NFL weekend activity, Detroit (6-2) is at San Francisco (3-5), Baltimore (4-4) plays at Los Angeles (1-7), Pittsburgh (4-4) visits St. Louis (2-5-1) and the Minnesota Vikings (2-6) are at Chicago (4-4).

Eddie Lebaron, always a thorn in the side of the Giants, splits the Cowboys' quarterbacking with young Don Meredith. Lebaron is ranked No. 1 in the NFL's passing statistics.

The Packers are itching to avenge their 17-13 loss to the Eagles in the 1960 title game on the same Franklin Field gridiron. The game cast returns for the defending champions, but the poor Eagles (1-6-1) are well below their 1960 form, particularly on defense — and they must cope with a devastating offensive machine led by fullback Jim Taylor.

GHS, Cannors Will Meet Here This Evening

Heavy showers Friday resulted in postponement of the Gettysburg - Biglerville High School football game until this evening at 8 o'clock on the Warriors' field here.

With both teams regarding the game as one of the most important on their schedules and the desirability of playing under favorable conditions, the postponement was mutually agreed upon.

If inclement weather continues today announcement will be made over WGET on the status of tonight's game. There is a possibility the game may be rescheduled for Monday evening if rain persists today.

Two other scholastic games are scheduled for tonight. DeLohe Catholic finishes its campaign with South Western at McSherrystown while Bermudian Springs closes out against Kennard-Dale on the Biglerville High School field.

LOCK HAVEN LOSES TITLE ON 6-6 TIE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fate snatched the West Central scholastic football title away from Lock Haven Friday night and gave it to State College.

Lock Haven appeared to have the title all wrapped up, needing only a victory over Phillipsburg. But on a rain-swept field the best Lock Haven could muster was a 6-6 tie.

And with DuBois' 7-6 victory over Punxsutawney, State College, which finished its season last week, sneaked in the back door and grabbed the title.

Rain played havoc with the scholastic schedule statewide, forcing postponement of more than a score of games.

The Green Bay Packers and New York Giants are winging their way toward a second successive meeting for the National Football League title, but the Giants may run into the heaviest flak concentration of the season Sunday in Dallas' Cotton Bowl.

While the defending champion Packers are given little to worry about in their visit with the Philadelphia Eagles, New York must gather its off-punctured defenses and battle the league's top offensive team.

A victory by the Giants and one by the Washington Redskins, who play host to Cleveland, would put New York in a highly favorable position to get its fifth Eastern Conference title in the past seven years. Washington is second in the East, a half game behind the Giants, while Dallas and Cleveland are tied for third, 1½ games back.

OTHER GAMES
In other NFL weekend action, Detroit (6-2) is at San Francisco (3-5), Baltimore (4-4) plays at Los Angeles (1-7), Pittsburgh (4-4) visits St. Louis (2-5-1) and the Minnesota Vikings (2-6) are at Chicago (4-4).

Eddie Lebaron, always a thorn in the side of the Giants, splits the Cowboys' quarterbacking with young Don Meredith. Lebaron is ranked No. 1 in the NFL's passing statistics.

The Packers are itching to avenge their 17-13 loss to the Eagles in the 1960 title game on the same Franklin Field gridiron. The game cast returns for the defending champions, but the poor Eagles (1-6-1) are well below their 1960 form, particularly on defense—and they must cope with a devastating offensive machine led by fullback Jim Taylor.

GHS, Cannors Will Meet Here This Evening

Heavy showers Friday resulted in postponement of the Gettysburg - Biglerville High School football game until this evening at 8 o'clock on the Warriors' field here.

With both teams regarding the game as one of the most important on their schedules and the desirability of playing under favorable conditions, the postponement was mutually agreed upon.

If inclement weather continues today announcement will be made over WGET on the status of tonight's game. There is a possibility the game may be rescheduled for Monday evening if rain persists today.

Two other scholastic games are scheduled for tonight. Delone Catholic finishes its campaign with South Western at McSherrystown while Bermudian Springs closes out against Kennard-Dale on the Biglerville High School field.

LOCK HAVEN LOSES TITLE ON 6-6 TIE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fate snatched the West Central scholastic football title away from Lock Haven Friday night and gave it to State College.

Lock Haven appeared to have the title all wrapped up, needing only a victory over Phillipsburg. But on a rain-swept field the best Lock Haven could muster was a 6-6 tie.

And with DuBois' 7-6 victory over Punxsutawney, State College, which finished its season last week, sneaked in the back door and grabbed the title.

Rain played havoc with the scholastic schedule statewide, forcing postponement of more than a score of games.

BIG GAMES TONIGHT

The WPIAL Class AA title could be decided tonight as a Uniontown victory over Johnstown. But in case the Red Raiders falter, Monessen, Hempfield and New Castle are ready to step in.

Monessen was rained out but New Castle remained in contention with a 20-0 victory over Ellwood City.

Peabody won the Pittsburgh City title (Section 1) with a 15-0 conquest of South Hills.

In nonconference action, Altoona ran its winning string to 14 games with a 26-7 romp over Williamsport.

Clearfield averted an all-losing season by beating Curwensville 14-7 in the final game of the campaign.

TEN YEARS AGO

Jacobs Chosen As Director:
Luther E. Jacobs, R. 3, has been named as a director of the newly-organized Pennsylvania Foods Merchants Assoc. Mr. Jacobs, as a charter member of the group, is scheduled to attend charter presentation ceremonies at Erie. Fifteen grocers from throughout the state make up the board of directors of the group which is scheduled to "represent the Keystone State's retail food industry in trade and governmental circles."

Golden Anniversary Edition:
The Gettysburg Times today presents its Golden Anniversary Edition, one hundred and six page issue commemorating fifty years of daily newspaper publishing in Gettysburg and Adams County. It is the largest newspaper ever published in this area. Each issue weighs one pound, ten and one-half ounces and the newsprint stock for each issue cost more than twelve cents. The entire edition is more than 11,000 nine and one-half pages of paper. In September, 1905, The Gettysburg Times came into being, a changeover from the original "The Progress." From a struggling four-page paper The Times moved forward, always mindful of its objective, an unbiased, impartial and community newspaper. It has survived two serious depressions and two World Wars. From a meagre force of three and then five employees it has grown into a formidable publication employing 66 full-time workers plus some thirty-odd carriers and fifteen county correspondents. The only president the Times and News Publishing Company, publisher of The Gettysburg Times, has ever had is Samuel G. Spangler, York St. And although Mr. Spangler is living retired (although not from the presidency, where he is extremely active) he joined a large volunteer force today to distribute this anniversary edition. The founder of the Oyster and Spangler Company, later an affiliate of the Central Chemical Co., recently retired from business life after more than half a century of hard work. In good health and exceptionally active for one of his advanced years, Mr. Spangler offered his services to his own company as a "carrier boy" today. He declined remuneration. Mr. Spangler, an outstanding business man, was one of a group who decided to purchase the paper in 1923 when W. Lavere Hafer, its outstanding editor and owner, decided to sell the publication because of ill health. More than half a century ago Mr. Spangler was the operator of a store on Lincoln Square. He then went into partnership with the late J. Price Oyster, also an original Times and News Publishing member, in the rendering business, which grew into Central Chemical Co.

Favor Like At Mt. St. Mary's:
A straw vote on the campus at Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, indicates that the students agreed that "It's Time for a Change." General Eisenhower won the presidential poll with 200 votes to Governor Stevenson's 178. The student body was divided on the question of whether Eisenhower should support McCarthy, but there was a solid protest against the Truman "Whistle Stop" tactics.

Delone Parents Form PTA:
Parents of Delone High School students met at the school in McSherrystown and formed a Parent-Teacher Assoc. Joseph K. Gabel, St. Vincent's Parish, Hanover, has been nominated for president; Edward DeChabell, St. Mary's, McSherrystown, for vice pres.; Dennis Umdri, Sr., St. Joseph's, Hanover, secretary, and Mrs. Robert Derck, St. Francis Xavier, Gettysburg, financial secretary. Officers will be elected at a later meeting.

Today's Talk

WITHIN THE SHADOWS

We have to live many years before we come to appreciate some of the simplest truths and beauties that are ever within and about us.

Only of late years have shadows been revealed to me in all their glory. We are apt to take them for granted, whereas shadows really make the beauty of a thing dominant and striking. Take a painting or an etching, a statue in bronze or marble — the shadows give it its life and vibrancy.

The loveliest part of any day is when the shadows have gathered thickly — toward evening, mingling with the dusk of night.

Even the shadows that form about the planes of our face, tend to emphasize and make prominent our very features. And the folds of one's garment, how beautiful they are as they somehow take upon themselves a touch of the personality of the one who wears them! Without the shadows, these folds would be meaningless.

How beautiful are the shadows that cluster and hover about a winding road banked upon either side by glorious trees clad in colorful autumn garb! I also have within my memory-room a spring scene where the trees were white birches and they threw a mass of shadows about the road that gave to it the appearance of a lovely tapestry.

I shall never forget a wonderful plane trip I made one winter to Havana and back from Miami, Florida. Going over there were many clouds but the day was beautiful and full of sunshine, and the shadows cast by the clouds upon the landscape below were a revelation to me: Like rare rugs scattered here and there about the land and water. It is so fascinating to watch shadows at play. In the out-of-doors they change every second.

Even our thoughts and our words may have their shadows — their shades of beauty. Even our dreams and the voyage of this little life-bark of ours, depend upon shadows to give nourishment and hope.

Just Folks

FOURTH AT BRIDGE

The fourth at bridge I used to be —
A kind, but foolish soul —
But life has grief enough for me,
So now I scorn the role,
Once to oblige I filled the chair,
The table to complete,
Now, rather than be blistered there,
I leave a vacant seat.

When questioned: "Will I take a hand?"
Smiling say, "not I,
The game I do not understand."
Nor do I think I lie.
No wish have I to be despised
Or rated as a fool
And be condemned and criticized
For breaking code and rule.

All fourths at bridge by those who play
Are treated as their foes,
Your expert has a scornful way
Of looking down his nose.
And players who have read the books
They publish on the game
Wreck friendships old with words and looks
And that's downright shameful

Nixon Blames Truman: Sen. Richard M. Nixon, Republican vice presidential candidate, speaking on the steps of the Pennsylvania state capitol to a crowd estimated at 2,000, said America's casualty list in Korea is a direct result of "a spineless foreign policy." The crowd cheered Nixon's attack but a hush fell when he said: "I would like to see the dead boys in Korea somehow vote an absentee ballot. You would see them all vote against this administration." SAY MENON WILL REMAIN AS ADVISOR

By RANGASWAMY SATAKOPAN

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Top Indian political and official circles believe that V. K. Krishna Menon will continue to be Prime Minister Nehru's chief adviser on foreign policy despite his fall from the cabinet and the debacle of his defense policy.

And there is no indication, these same sources say, that Menon won't continue to be Nehru's favorite spokesman at the United Nations when the prime minister feels Menon's special talents are needed there.

Nehru's reluctance in dropping Menon from his Cabinet was plain. "I have decided with great regret to accept Menon's resignation," he told leaders of the Congress party. Nehru said he was accepting the resignation because the unending and mounting controversy around his closest associate would inevitably impede the defense effort.

But Menon continues to live across the street from Nehru's official residence, within easy reach of the prime minister whenever Nehru wants to consult him. And after years of paying close heed to Menon's counsel, it is highly unlikely that Nehru is now going to ignore it.

Menon no longer will exercise direct and constant influence on day-to-day policies, as he has for the past six years as a senior cabinet member, one of Nehru's aides said.

MAY SHORTEN DAILY PRAYERS

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Suggestions were made at the Roman Catholic Ecumenical Council Friday that the daily prayers priests must say be shortened to give them more time for their pastoral duties. Opposition to any change also was expressed.

The breviary—the book of daily prayers said by every priest—was the main topic of discussion at the council session in St. Peter's, a spokesman said.

"Several speakers requested that it be reduced in size so that priests might dedicate themselves more to the work of the apostolate," the spokesman said. "Others requested that it be adapted more to the demands of the times."

Priests now spend about two hours every day reading from the breviary.

Nineteen prelates spoke Friday—cardinals and archbishops.

The spokesman said that some of the prelates suggested that the breviary not be changed because it has undergone reform through the centuries. The speakers, the spokesman said, pointed to revisions made by Pope John XXIII in 1960 and asserted that these made recitations easier.

NEHRU SCORNS RED OFFER OF PEACE TRADE

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru told Parliament Friday India will pay no heed to so-called peace offensives from Peiping. Saying they are aimed at humiliating and weakening India's determination, he exhorted the nation to be prepared for a long war.

Red China announced Wednesday it had offered to pull back its troops on the disputed northeastern frontier if the Indians would hand over territory claimed by the Chinese in Ladakh, in the north west.

Communist forces opened military offensives on both Himalayan fronts Oct. 20. In Ladakh, they hold all but about 500 square miles of a 15,000-square-mile area they claim.

Red Chinese attacks were reported today at Walong in the northeastern frontier near the Burma border. The Indians claimed they were repulsed. About 300 miles west of Walong, the Red Chinese still control the monastery town of Towang.

Indian forces are beginning to receive big supplies of U.S. and British infantry weapons to counter heavy Red Chinese firepower.

A U.S. Army general is expected to come to New Delhi to discuss additional arms shipments.

LUCILLE BALL WILL BECOME DESILU PREXY

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Lucille Ball is taking over as president of Desilu Productions and will acquire control of the multi-million-dollar enterprise by buying out her ex-husband, Desi Arnaz.

Arnaz, 45, resigned the presidency Thursday and the board of directors immediately named Miss Ball to succeed him.

Thus the couple ended their business association about two years after ending their marriage. Arnaz was not available for comment on his resignation, but a Desilu spokesman said he wants to devote full time to other interests.

REPORT $20 MILLION

Miss Ball, 51, said she would purchase 300,350 shares of stock held by Arnaz and increase her holdings to 600,650, or 52 per cent of all outstanding shares.

A studio spokesman said Miss Ball will pay Arnaz "a price considerably in excess of the current market value." Desilu stock has gone as high as $12 a share this year.

There were reports recently that a large electrical firm sought to buy Desilu and the asking price then was estimated at $20 million.

NEHRU SCORNS RED OFFER OF PEACE TRADE

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru told Parliament Friday India will pay no heed to so-called peace offensives from Peiping. Saying they are aimed at humiliating and weakening India's determination, he exhorted the nation to be prepared for a long war.

Red China announced Wednesday it had offered to pull back its troops on the disputed northeastern frontier if the Indians would hand over territory claimed by the Chinese in Ladakh, in the north west.

Communist forces opened military offensives on both Himalayan fronts Oct. 20. In Ladakh, they hold all but about 500 square miles of a 15,000-square-mile area they claim.

Red Chinese attacks were reported today at Walong in the northeastern frontier near the Burma border. The Indians claimed they were repulsed. About 300 miles west of Walong, the Red Chinese still control the monastery town of Towang.

Indian forces are beginning to receive big supplies of U.S. and British infantry weapons to counter heavy Red Chinese firepower.

A U.S. Army general is expected to come to New Delhi to discuss additional arms shipments.

LUCILLE BALL WILL BECOME DESILU PREXY

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Lucille Ball is taking over as president of Desilu Productions and will acquire control of the multi-million-dollar enterprise by buying out her ex-husband, Desi Arnaz.

Arnaz, 45, resigned the presidency Thursday and the board of directors immediately named Miss Ball to succeed him.

Thus the couple ended their business association about two years after ending their marriage. Arnaz was not available for comment on his resignation, but a Desilu spokesman said he wants to devote full time to other interests.

REPORT $20 MILLION

Miss Ball, 51, said she would purchase 300,350 shares of stock held by Arnaz and increase her holdings to 600,650, or 52 per cent of all outstanding shares.

A studio spokesman said Miss Ball will pay Arnaz "a price considerably in excess of the current market value." Desilu stock has gone as high as $12 a share this year.

There were reports recently that a large electrical firm sought to buy Desilu and the asking price then was estimated at $20 million.

County Agent Recommends Cattle Chute For Dairymen

By FRANK S. ZETTEL
Adams County Farm Agent

An important part of a loose housing arrangement for dairy cattle is a "cattle squeeze." A cattle squeeze, or chute makes it possible to segregate cows for treatment, breeding, or blood testing.

Many dairymen having loose housing without a cattle squeeze have experienced difficulty in handling cows later if the milking parlor is used for treatment purposes. Some cows become "gunshy" to the parlor when treated in the milking parlor stall.

Location of the chute or squeeze is important too. Usually adjacent to the holding area, with connecting lanes from the milking parlor exit, results in the best arrangement.

USE ONLY FOR MILKING

The important consideration is that the milking parlor be reserved for milking only with a separate area and separate facilities provided for treatment and breeding in loose housing operations.

Roughage comprises a greater percentage of the total feed consumed by sheep and beef cattle than any other species of farm livestock. Good hay and silage make up practically all the feed needs of most sheep or beef cattle farms in Adams County. An ample supply of good roughage is not only desirable, but absolutely necessary. Silage, either corn or grass, makes a good replacement for hay. Because of its high moisture content, silage is roughly equal to one-third the feeding value of hay. To winter a dry beef cow under most Adams County conditions will require one of the following rations: 1 1/4 to 2 1/4 tons of mixed hay; 1,200 to 1,500 pounds of good legume hay plus 1 1/4 tons of filler, such as corn stover, or oat straw; or 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 tons of grass silage. Winter pasture, such as wheat, barley, or rye, will help considerably to cut feed costs and labor.

NEED VARIES

Roughage needed for bred ewes will vary, depending on their size, and the availability of winter pasture. You should have on hand 500 to 600 pounds of good hay per ewe for a five-month feeding period. Grain feeding is not necessary usually until four to six weeks before lambing. Racks constructed so cattle and sheep cannot waste the hay will help considerably in conserving the hay supply.

Modern methods in farming have not eliminated the traditional practice of farm butchering. Nor have they removed the hazards which frequently result in accidents during the butchering operation. Observe the simple rules of safety and avoid the usual run of accidents during the coming butchering season.

One of the greatest causes of injuries is falls due to slippery footing. Remove ice and sprinkle ashes on the ground where butchering operations are to take place. If the job is done indoors, sand, sawdust, or crushed rock salt help the footing.

Check hoists to be certain they will sustain the weight that is to be placed on them. Avoid weak

Five of Adams County's "TVA farmers," men who greatly revamped their farming programs during the last five years in a cooperative program conducted by the Tennessee Valley Authority, Pennsylvania State University and the Extension Service, are shown at a meeting in the Lamp Post Tea Room where they met with the chairman of the Tennessee Valley Authority and other TVA officials plus Penn State officials at the formal close of the five-year program. Today's Pattern

SAFETY HINTS

These 10 suggestions should help to make butchering operations safe:

1. Keep all butchering knives in a knife rack when not in use.
2. Keep knives sharp and handles in good condition.
3. Observe all the ordinary precautions with firearms used for stunning the animal. Keep them unloaded when not in use.
4. Use a tamper to force meat into the meat grinder.
5. Keep children away from all butchering operations.
6. Clean or mop up all grease from floors immediately.
7. Use extreme care in handling the scalding water.
8. Whet knives away from the body.
9. Avoid strain from overlifting.
10. Always cut or chop away from the body.

Ever serve corn pudding with crisp bacon for lunch? Good with corn muffins — made from a mix or from scratch.

NAB PREMIER TAINTED WITH "STALINISM"

By LOYAL GOULD

SOFIA, Bulgaria (AP)—The reported house arrest of ousted Premier Anton Yugov pointed today to a widening purge of Bulgarian Communists tainted with Stalinism.

Informants said that Yugov, ousted along with six other party leaders last Sunday, was placed under guard in his home Thursday night shortly after he was condemned before the party congress as an advocate of the personality cult who misused his power to persecute political rivals.

SOME SNOW

Wind gales up to 66 m.p.h. roared through Norfolk, Va., splashing the area with nearly an inch of rain in a six-hour period. Cape Hatteras, N.C., reported 1.83 inches.

Scattered showers and snow also dampened the northern Rockies, Central Plateau and Pacific Coast. The Great Lakes and Ohio Valley regions received some rainfall from the East Coast storm. The middle and north Atlantic Coast states also received heavy rainfall.

Warm, clear weather was reported in the middle Mississippi Valley, Central and Southern Plains and the Southern Rockies.

Indict Three In Murder Of Woman

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The November grand jury has returned indictments charging three young Philadelphia men in the beating death last month of Mrs. Claire Kramer, 42.

Bills charging murder, manslaughter, robbery, burglary and conspiracy, were returned Friday against Rodney Harry Langnas, 19, Lonnie J. Johnson Jr., 22, and Leonard Engler, 24.

Engler and Langnas testified before the grand jury for about 20 minutes.

At a hearing last week for Johnson, Engler testified that Johnson had beaten Mrs. Kramer repeatedly with a lug wrench when she discovered them burglarizing her house. Engler testified that Langnas remained outside to watch.

power to persecute political rivals.

One party leader after another got up to condemn Yugov and his associates as criminals who deserved the maximum punishment possible under Bulgarian law for using terroristic methods against what they called some of the best forces in Bulgarian communism.

Up to now, party sources have not said what this would involve.

"It certainly looks as if many of them are going to get the axe," a neutral observer said.

So far, all those expelled from their positions were closely associated with Yugov while he was interior minister from 1944 to 1949, the year that saw Bulgaria engulfed in a wave of terrorism which sent thousands of Communists and non-Communists to the gallows.

TOUGH MAN TO FOLLOW

Jim Anderson has sure been a tough man to follow," says Robert Young, who plays him on ABC-TV's "Father Knows Best."

"He's a great guy and I'm glad to have known him, but he has certainly given me trouble."

When Jim Anderson, the character actor, was created for the series, he was given many of the attributes of Robert Young. These similarities often made it difficult for the public and even Young's family to separate the two men. Anderson was given the quiet dignity and the manner of the actor. He was given a family of growing children and the intellectual approach that marks Young's own personal life. The major difference was that Anderson was given good actors, and my wife just couldn't understand why I was unable to solve family problems and domestic crisis with the grace, understanding and aplomb with which Anderson meets them," admits Young.

Then there's the volume of letters sent in by viewers to Young, requesting advice on personal problems and family matters.

"The best I could do was to forward them to competent authorities," he says. "I've tried to combine the scripts for ready made solutions to problems, but it never worked out. It seems that I have a sanity Frankenstein on my hands."

County Agent Recommends Cattle Chute For Dairymen

By FRANK S. ZETTL
Adams County Farm Agent

An important part of a loose housing arrangement for dairy cattle is a "cattle squeeze." A cattle squeeze, or chute makes it possible to segregate cows for treatment, breeding, or blood testing.

Many dairymen having loose housing without a cattle squeeze have experienced difficulty in handling cows later if the milking parlor is used for treatment, breeding, or blood testing. Some cows become "gunshy" to the parlor when treated in the milking parlor stall.

Location of the chute or squeeze is important too. Usually adjacent to the holding area, with connecting lanes from the milking parlor exit, results in the best arrangement.

USE ONLY FOR MILKING

The important consideration is that the milking parlor be reserved for milking only with a separate area and separate facilities provided for treatment and breeding in loose housing operations.

Roughage comprises a greater percentage of the total feed consumed by sheep and beef cattle than any other species of farm livestock. Good hay and silage make up practically all the feed needs on most sheep or beef cattle farms in Adams County. An ample supply of good roughage is not only desirable, but absolutely necessary. Silage, either corn or grass, makes a good replacement for hay. Because of its high moisture content, silage is roughly equal to one-third the feeding value of hay. To winter a dry beef cow under most Adams County conditions will require one of the following rations: 1 1/4 to 2 1/4 tons of mixed hay; 1,200 to 1,500 pounds of good legume hay plus 1 1/4 tons of filler, such as corn stover, or oat straw; or 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 tons of grass silage. Winter pasture, such as wheat, barley, or rye, will help considerably to cut feed costs and labor.

NEED VARIES

Roughage needed for bred ewes will vary, depending on their size, and the availability of winter pasture. You should have on hand 500 to 600 pounds of good hay per ewe for a five-month feeding period. Grain feeding is not necessary usually until four to six weeks before lambing. Racks constructed so cattle and sheep cannot waste the hay will help considerably in conserving the hay supply.

Modern methods in farming have not eliminated the traditional practice of farm butchering. Nor have they removed the hazards which frequently result in accidents during the butchering operation. Observe the simple rules of safety and avoid the usual run of accidents during the coming butchering season.

One of the greatest causes of injuries is falls due to slippery footing. Remove ice and sprinkle ashes on the ground where butchering operations are to take place. If the job is done indoors, sand, sawdust, or crushed rock salt help the footing.

Check hoists to be certain they will sustain the weight that is to be placed on them. Avoid weak

Five of Adams County's "TVA farmers," men who greatly revamped their farming programs during the last five years in a cooperative program conducted by the Tennessee Valley Authority, Pennsylvania State University and the Extension Service, are shown at a meeting in the Lamp Post Tea Room where they met with the chairman of the Tennessee Valley Authority and other TVA officials plus Penn State officials at the formal close of the five-year program. ropes, worn pulleys, and rotten tree limbs.

SAFETY HINTS

These 10 suggestions should help to make butchering operations safe:

1. Keep all butchering knives in a knife rack when not in use.
2. Keep knives sharp and handles in good condition.
3. Observe all the ordinary precautions with firearms used for stunning the animal. Keep them unloaded when not in use.
4. Use a tamper to force meat into the meat grinder.
5. Keep children away from all butchering operations.
6. Clean or mop up all grease from floors immediately.
7. Use extreme care in handling the scalding water.
8. Wipe knives away from the body.
9. Avoid strain from overlifting.
10. Always cut or chop away from the body.

NAB PREMIER TAINTED WITH "STALINISM"

By LOYAL GOULD

SOFIA, Bulgaria (AP)—The reported house arrest of ousted Premier Anton Yugov pointed today to a widening purge of Bulgarian Communists tainted with Stalinism.

Informants said that Yugov, ousted along with six other party leaders last Sunday, was placed under guard in his home Thursday night shortly after he was condemned before the party congress as an advocate of the personality cult who misused his power to persecute political rivals.

SOME SNOW

Wind gales up to 66 m.p.h. roared through Norfolk, Va., splashing the area with nearly an inch of rain in a six-hour period. Cape Hatteras, N.C., reported 1.83 inches.

Scattered showers and snow also dampened the northern Rockies, Central Plateau and Pacific Coast. The Great Lakes and Ohio Valley regions received some rainfall from the East Coast storm. The middle and north Atlantic Coast states also received heavy rainfall.

Warm, clear weather was reported in the middle Mississippi Valley, Central and Southern Plains and the Southern Rockies.

Indict Three In Murder Of Woman

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The November grand jury has returned indictments charging three young Philadelphia men in the beating death last month of Mrs. Claire Kramer, 42.

Bills charging murder, manslaughter, robbery, burglary and conspiracy, were returned Friday against Rodney Harry Langnas, 19, Lonnie J. Johnson Jr., 22, and Leonard Engler, 24.

Engler and Langnas testified before the grand jury for about 20 minutes.

At a hearing last week for Johnson, Engler testified that Johnson had beaten Mrs. Kramer repeatedly with a lug wrench when she discovered them burglarizing her house. Engler testified that Langnas remained outside to watch.

One party leader after another got up to condemn Yugov and his associates as criminals who deserved the maximum punishment possible under Bulgarian law for using terroristic methods against what they called some of the best forces in Bulgarian communism.

Up to now, party sources have not said what this would involve. "It certainly looks as if many of them are going to get the axe," a neutral observer said.

So far, all those expelled from their positions were closely associated with Yugov while he was interior minister from 1944 to 1949, the year that saw Bulgaria engulfed in a wave of terrorism which sent thousands of Communists and non-Communists to the gallows.

CONGRATULATIONS

Hon. James Corman, California Congressman, relates: "I had the opportunity and good fortune to see 'Mr. Smith Goes to Washington' series recently in my district and in addition to being entertaining it seems to me that the series has a real opportunity to bring greater interest in and understanding of our Congress to the American people."

An actress on one of the series on TV complained that her husband was always "nagging." "You mean aggravated," insisted her boss. "No, nagging," she insisted. "He's always nagging on the horses."

MAN OF THE YEAR IN SHOW BUSINESS

Bert Parks was named "Man of the Year in Show Business" by the March of Dimes at a benefit luncheon recently at the Hotel Americana in New York City. Dr. Ernest M. Frost, New York Director of the March of Dimes, made the presentation.

Jay North of "Dennis the Menace" is a great-grandson of Robert Burns, the 18th Century Scottish poet.

Rin Tin Tin, canine star, has a family heritage dating back to the silent movie days of 1923.

Burt Reynolds of "Gunsmoke" was All-Florida and All-Southern Conference halfback at Florida State.

At Hanna-Barbara Productions they are frantically trying to keep 100 years ahead of the fast-moving present in dreaming up futuristic gimmicks. Joseph Barbera notes "If one of my artists had drawn something like the long-legged bugs now in development for moon exploration, I would have thought he was nuts."

Alvin Cooperman of "The Untouchables," the new producer of the series has gone from one extreme to the other subject matter. He used to be the producer of the "Shirley Temple" series.

"Requiem for a Golden Boy," an original story "Hawaiian Eye" star, Robert Conrad wrote for the series, has already been before the cameras.

REPORT NEGRO IS PLANNING TO QUIT OLE MISS

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—University of Mississippi student James H. Meredith relaxed and conferred here today on a long weekend that has aroused reports he may withdraw from school.

The 29-year-old Negro, who entered the university during the bloody riots that took two lives five weeks ago, unexpectedly left the Oxford, Miss., campus Thursday, missing two examinations.

NEW YORK (AP)—Dan Richardson of Drexel Hill, Pa., is the new second vice president of the U.S. Professional Tennis Association. His election was announced Friday.

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—An Erie County Court jury convicted Lee Valentine Coleman Friday night of second-degree murder in the strangling of his estranged wife in her apartment last Jan. 7.

Police said Coleman, 24, and his wife, Marlene, argued when he visited her and insisted on feeding their infant daughter. The couple had been separated about two months.

Judge Burke I. Burke set sentencing for Dec. 6.

WIFE ORDERED TO LEAVE U.S.

CENTRALIA, Wash. (AP)—The attractive young English wife of a basketball coach has been ordered to leave the country and it appeared today that only an act of Congress can keep the couple together here.

Mrs. Ronald Brown, 24, who came here on an exchange teacher visitor's visa in 1960, was told last week she would have to leave the country by Dec. 9.

She and her husband, who met

while both were teaching at Centralia High School, expect a baby in January.

Immigration service officials in Seattle said Mrs. Brown can probably get her visa extended until after the baby is born. But the only way she can get a permanent visa is through Congress unless she returns to England applies for re-entry into the United States.

Her application for re-entry couldn't be made for two years, according to the Browns.

REPORT NEGRO IS PLANNING TO QUIT OLE MISS

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—University of Mississippi student James H. Meredith relaxed and conferred here today on a long weekend that has aroused reports he may withdraw from school.

WIFE ORDERED TO LEAVE U.S.

CENTRALIA, Wash. (AP)—The attractive young English wife of a basketball coach has been ordered to leave the country and it appeared today that only an act of Congress can keep the couple together here.

Mrs. Ronald Brown, 24, who came here on an exchange teacher's visa in 1960, was told last week she would have to leave the country by Dec. 9.

She and her husband, who met

while both were teaching at Centralia High School, expect a baby in January.

Immigration service officials in Seattle said Mrs. Brown can probably get her visa extended until after the baby is born. But the only way she can get a permanent visa is through Congress unless she returns to England and applies for re-entry into the United States.

Her application for re-entry couldn't be made for two years, according to the Browns.
